

International Economy and Business MSc admission exam requirements 2024 non-central admission procedure

Name(s) of graduate program(s)	International Economy and Business MSc
Type of the exam	Oral
Name of the exam	Motivational and professional interview
Duration of the exam	15-20 minutes
Method of the exam	Online interview in English
Short description of the exam	1.Introduction (2 minutes) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Brief introduction of the applicant's CV (2') 2.Motivational questions (3') <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Why did you choose Corvinus University of Budapest and International Economy and Business programme? •What are your future career goals after graduation? •How can you convince us that you are the best candidate to be chosen? •Do you have any Qs about the program? 3.Professional part (based on topics below and based on experiences and interest) (10') <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •What are the actual economic problems of the European Union? •Why can high inflation be advantageous for economic growth? •How do multinational corporations affect one country's economy? •What is comparative advantage theory? What do you think are countries specialised in accordance with this theory? •What factors determine exchange rates? Evaluation aspects <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •have up-to-date information about our program •have some basic knowledge about our field of sciences •have logical thinking •have knowledge and opinion about current issues in relation to world economy •English knowledge, speaking skills
Materials that can be used during the exam	None
Recommended reading materials	Thomas A. Pugel (2016): International Economics, McGraw-Hill, 16th Edition. Current news of the Economist, the Financial Times, the Wall Street Journal and World Bank
Topics	International trade (specialization theories, trade barriers, exchange rate and its theories: mainly PPP and IRP theories, determining factors of exchange rates, exchange rate systems). Current issues of developed, developing and emerging countries. Current issues of the European Union.
Sample questions	See above in short decription.