ON THE FINANCIAL TASKS ASSOCIATED WITH THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE AUTUMN (1ST) AND SPRING (2ND)
SEMESTER OF THE 2023/2024 ACADEMIC YEAR*Preamble*1.§

- (1) Pursuant to the provisions of the Regulation on Student Fees and Benefits (hereinafter: RSFB) the following responsibilities and deadlines are hereby defined with regard to the financial tasks associated with the start of the autumn (1st) and spring (2nd) semester of the 2023/2024 academic year.

Scope2.§

- (1) The scope of the present provisions covers all students pursuing a bachelor, a two-cycle or single-cycle master, a specialist postgraduate or a doctoral study programme, students taking courses at another higher education institution, taking part in training with the purpose of acquiring specialised knowledge, preparatory courses as well as future students who gained admission or were accepted by transfer for the autumn (1st) and spring (2nd) semester of the 2023/2024 academic year.

Administration of the payment obligations of self-financed students, students supported through the Corvinus scholarship and through the Hungarian state scholarship in Neptun*3.§

- (1) A payment item in Neptun may be imposed as of 1 May 2023 for the autumn (1st) semester and as of 1 December 2023 for the spring (2nd) semester of the 2023/2024 academic year, taking into account the provisions of the present section. The date of performance of the service is also the date of imposing the payment item.
- (2) Student Services is responsible for imposing payment items for all students, with the exception of doctoral students. In the case of students taking part in doctoral programmes, Corvinus Doctoral Schools is responsible for imposing payment items (collectively: organisational units in charge of imposing items).
- (3) The payment items of students participating in bachelor, in two- and single cycle master programmes, in specialist postgraduate programmes postgraduate programmes starting in the first week of the semester, in doctoral programmes must be imposed in the Neptun system after the last day of the registration period, by 15 October 2023 for the autumn (1st) semester and by 14 March 2024 for the spring (2nd) semester, with an 8-day payment deadline.
- (4) For students funded through the Corvinus scholarship and other institutional scholarships, the deadline for imposing payment items is 15 October 2023 for the autumn (1st) semester and 14 March 2024 for the spring (2nd) semester, the payment deadlines being 30 October 2023 and 30 March 2024, respectively.

SEMESTER OF THE 2023/2024 ACADEMIC YEAR

- (5) The settlement of the imposed item is possible only in the currency in which it was imposed and in the case of a payment through the joint account, only from the joint account denominated in the same currency as the currency in which the item was imposed.
- (6) In the case of specialist postgraduate programmes not commencing in the first week of the semester, the payment deadline shall be set to precede the date of enrolment by eight (8) days.
- (7) The payment items of students participating in courses taken at another higher education institution, training with the purpose of acquiring specialised knowledge and preparatory courses must be imposed in the Neptun system after 1 May 2023 for the autumn (1st) semester and after 1 November 2023 for the spring (2nd) semester, but no later than the end of the registration period, with a payment deadline of 8 days from the date on which the item was imposed. If this is necessary for the purposes of applying for a visa, the items may be imposed from 1 April 2023 and 1 October 2023 at the earliest.
- (8) Information on submitting invoice requests:
- In Neptun, an invoice made out in the name of the student is automatically generated for each financially settled cost item. The invoice will be marked "No financial execution required", indicating that the payment has been made.
 - Invoice requests may only be submitted in connection with an active item before the payment deadline for the item in question. In this case, Revenues/Finance shall issue an invoice made out in the name of the partner featured on the invoice request, with a payment deadline of 8 days from the date of issue. At the same time, the payment deadline in Neptun shall be changed.
 - Invoices issued for payment items that have already been settled cannot be amended subsequently.
- (9) Revenues/Finance shall be in charge of the tasks set out in subsection (8).
- (10) In the case of financing through a student loan, the payment deadline must be modified in Neptun. Unit in charge: Student Services, deadline: third (3rd) working day after the contract number is recorded. The revised payment deadline is 30 October 2023 and 30 March 2024 for contract numbers sent by the DHK (student loans company) and recorded by the student by 14 September in the autumn (1st) semester and by 14 March in the spring (2nd) semester. For contract numbers certified by the DHK after the dates specified above, the payment deadline is the 16th day after the contract number is recorded.
- (11) At the request of the student, the item may be imposed earlier than the deadlines set out in this section, with a payment deadline of at least 8 days from the date on which the item was imposed.
- (12) Deviations from the above payment deadlines are permitted in the case of a contract with a partner, subject to the deadlines set out in the contract.

COMMENCEMENT OF THE AUTUMN (1ST) AND SPRING (2ND)
SEMESTER OF THE 2023/2024 ACADEMIC YEAR*Payment in instalments*4.§

- (1) Payment in instalments is possible, taking into account the provisions of the RSFB, with the first instalment due on 15 October and the second on 31 October in the autumn (1st) semester and on 14 March 2023. For the spring (2nd) semester, the first instalment is due on 14 March and the second on 31 March 2024.

Tasks related to monitoring imposed items5.§

- (1) The predictability of revenue requires that the items imposed pursuant to Sections 3-4 are checked for accuracy and completeness.
- (2) In order to carry out the monitoring task, Revenues/Finance shall send the analytical records of the expired active items to the organisational units in charge of imposing them at the latest by 20 October 2023 for the autumn (1st) semester and by 20 March 2024 for the spring (2nd) semester.
- (3) The data cleaning and data checking will be carried out by the organisational units responsible for imposing the items at the latest by 20 November 2023 for the autumn (1st) semester and 20 April 2024 for the spring (2nd) semester, and they will declare the completion of the task by returning the analytical records sent to Revenues/ Finance with their comments.
- (4) It is important that the comment "deletion due to" must be entered when deleting an item already imposed (the reason for the deletion may be, for example, incorrectly imposed item, failure to register).
- (5) Random checks shall be performed on the returned tables by Revenues/ Finance no later than the last day of the study period of the semester in question.
- (6) In accordance with the provisions of the RSFB, in the case of a legitimate but unpaid overdue debt, the student must be called on to pay by the organisational responsible for imposing the item
- (7) In case of failure to meet the payment deadline:
 - a) if the amount owed is less than HUF 30,000, the organisational units responsible for imposing the item will send two messages via Neptun to the student, reminding him/her to pay the overdue amount immediately, but not later than within fifteen (15) days or certify his/her social situation by that date. In the event of an unsuccessful procedure, the organisational units responsible for imposing the items must initiate the write-off of the debt as an irrecoverable debt by Revenues/ Finance and at the same time enter in the comment field of the relevant items in Neptun the words "write-off of recoverable debt by Revenues/Finance ". It is prohibited to delete items in Neptun.
 - b) if the amount owed by the student is more than HUF 30,000, the rules of the Provisions of the Head of Finance No 2/2022 on the process of recovering claims shall apply. In
