RULES OF OPERATIONAnnex 3*Other conditions for obtaining teaching, service and research credits

- (1) Detailed rules for obtaining teaching and service credits:
 - a) In the study and research phase, teaching one timeslot as a subject leader or lecturer is worth 6 credits (based on Neptun). Active involvement in teaching one course constituting one timeslot shall be worth 2 credits (based on the certificate issued by the subject leader). Active involvement may cover invigilating exams, correcting papers, delivering parts of a course (e.g. 1-2 seminars / semester), documented job shadowing and mentoring of students writing their thesis, taking part in the competition organised by the Students' Scientific Association (TDK). In the study and research phase (semesters 1-4), teaching minimum 1 timeslot or performing education organisation activity equivalent thereto is mandatory (worth 6 credits).
 - b) For the research and dissertation phase (semesters 5-8), no minimum teaching activity is defined; a maximum of 24 teaching credits (or equivalent education organisation) may be recognised. If the PhD student participates in teaching as the leader of a thesis seminar, then on the basis of the information recorded in Neptun, 6 credits may be recognised for 10 bachelor students or 5 master students (if there are fewer students, the number of credits shall be proportionally reduced).
- (2) The research credits to be completed in the study and research phase may be obtained as described in Annex 5, with the research credits being proposed by the supervisor. Research credits must be underpinned by actual research materials, work plans, discussion papers, conference abstracts, presentations, publications and the associated declarations of acceptance.
- (3) Research credits to be completed in the research and dissertation phase can be obtained as described in Annex 5. The credits must be supported by concrete research materials, documents, certified involvement in scientific and professional engagement activities., work plans, discussion papers, conference abstracts, presentations, publications and their declarations of acceptance.
- (4) In order to obtain fixed research credits in the research and dissertation phase, the following criteria must be met: if a successful thesis proposal discussion takes place in the research and dissertation phase, 20 credits are awarded.
- (5) A prerequisite for the completion of research credits is that the doctoral student and the supervisor personally agree at the beginning of each active semester on the research tasks to be carried out in the given semester, and agree on the minimum expectations of the supervisor from the doctoral student. The tasks should be defined in such detail that at the end of the semester their successful or unsuccessful completion can be clearly identified, and thus form the basis for the award of fixed credit. The agreement must be made in writing on a dedicated form, which is included in Annex 6, and uploaded to the dedicated interface of Moodle after being signed and scanned.

- (7) ¹⁴It is the joint responsibility of the doctoral student and the supervisor to ensure that at each phase of the programme, the research is of an intensity and quality that anticipates the fulfilment of the publication criterion requirements. Fixed research credits may only be awarded on a semestrial basis if the doctoral student can clearly substantiate his/her publication activity and intentions to publish with research materials and documents as specified in Annex 7.

- (7) Page numbers can be placed either in the header or footer, about 10 mm from the edge of the page.

Accessories

4.§

- (1) In addition to the pages of text that form the content of the dissertation, the following accessories are included in the dissertation (indicated separately if the accessory in question is conditional):
- (2) Internal front pages: a total of four internal pages precede the table of contents.
- (3) The first, odd page contains only the author's name and title, aligned approximately 90 mm from the top of the page, while the second (even) page, preceding the actual inner title page, should contain the following information:
 - a) the name of the doctoral school that is professionally competent with respect to the doctoral dissertation (at the top of the page, about 30 mm from the top edge of the page),
 - b) the name and academic title of the supervisor must be featured (at the top of the page, about 70 mm from the top edge) for candidates participating in organised instruction (and generally for those working under the direction of a supervisor,

DOCTORAL SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND MANAGEMENT
RULES OF OPERATION

- e) the type of paper: doctoral dissertation,
 - f) the author's full name as it appears in his/her personal documents, in the order customary in the Hungarian language (in the case of foreign candidates, with authentic spelling),
 - g) place and year of submission of the doctoral dissertation.
- (5) Table of contents: the table of contents should come right after the inner title pages, starting on an odd-numbered page (page 5)
- (6) List of tables, figures and illustrations: These lists (separate for figures, separate for tables and separate for illustrations such as photographs) should follow the table of contents.

Structuring and headings

5.8

- (1) Introduction: the text should begin with an introductory chapter in which the author locates his/her work within the coordinates of the research conducted on the topic, highlighting how it relates to and goes beyond the research history. The introduction should emphasise the methods used in the paper, the new findings of the doctoral dissertation, the new correlations discovered by the author, and methodological innovations. The introduction should also include, where available, practical suggestions drawn from the author's research.
- (2) Inner titles. Structuring: the doctoral dissertation should be structured into chapters, subchapters, etc. The units must be given numbered titles. The following levels of title may be used in a doctoral dissertation:
- a) chapter title,
 - b) subchapter title,
 - c) section title,
 - d) paragraph title.
- The depth of structuring should be in line with the length of the paper. The paragraph-level depth is only necessary for very long papers or special topics.
- (3) Chapter titles should be left- or centre-aligned and in all capital letters. Two or three blank lines should be left after the chapter title. Lower-levels of title should be left-aligned.
- (4) Notes. It is customary to include information and minor comments that would break the train of thought of the main text.
- (5) Positioning the notes. Notes should be placed as footnotes at the bottom of the text pages, but may also be placed at the end of the paper for certain considerations.
- (6) Numbering of notes. Notes should be numbered in Arabic numerals, preferably consecutively throughout the paper, rather than by chapter.
- (7) Longer digressions, case studies and examples should be placed in small print between the text, not as notes.

DOCTORAL SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND MANAGEMENT
RULES OF OPERATION

- (8) Inline citations. Brief references to works by other authors should be placed inline, immediately after the passage or sentence to which they refer. In the case of inline citations, the surname of the author cited, the year of publication of the work cited (in brackets) and, in the case of verbatim citations, the page number or numbers of pages, preceded by the p. or pp., should be provided in brackets. A detailed reference with all the necessary bibliographical information should be included at the end of the dissertation. (See Section 7.2)

Figures, maps and tables:6.§

- (1) Figures and tables should have a margin of at least 40 mm on both sides and should be placed as close as possible to the text to which they refer. At this point, a clear reference to the accessory in question must be provided in brackets (with a number) within the text. If there are so many accessories in the paper that they would interfere with the continuous reading of the text, they can be placed at the end of the paper.
- (2) Numbering of figures and tables: Figures and tables should be numbered consecutively in Arabic numerals (Figure 1, Figure 2, Table 1, Table 2, etc.) A blank line is required between the title and the inserted figure or table.
- (3) Additional material that cannot be included in the paper (data carriers, photographs, large maps, etc.) should be included as a separate package according to their nature. These should be clearly referred to in the table of contents of the paper or, if necessary, in a separate list after the table of contents. The cover of such separate packages should contain the same information as the outer cover of the paper itself. (See Section 2.3)
- (4) Illustrations and photographs should also be numbered in Arabic numerals, but, unlike tables and figures, these should be placed below the image before the caption

Appendix, List of references7.§

- (1) Appendix. An appendix is used to provide additional information that supports or supplements the main text of the paper, but which has no logical place within the main text. Questionnaires, discussion papers, summary tables, references supporting the research and a chronology may be included in the appendix. Any mathematical appendix is included at the end of the paper.
- (2) List of References The list should follow the so-called Harvard system (see below for details), but - adapting to the Hungarian language - the reference items should be listed in the Hungarian alphabetical order of the authors' names. Each item must start in a new line. If several items by the same author are listed, their order is determined by the year of publication. (Works from earlier editions are given priority.) If there is more than one item by the same author in the same year, they are distinguished by the small letters a, b, c, etc. next to the year. Each reference should include the following bibliographic data in the order given:
 - a) author(s);

DOCTORAL SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND MANAGEMENT
RULES OF OPERATION

- b) year of publication (in brackets, followed by a colon);
 - c) title - subtitle (each followed by a period);
 - d) volume;
 - e) publication (serial number of the edition and kind of publication);
 - f) name of the publisher or journal or periodical²³;
 - g) place of publication (for books only);
 - h) page number (length);
 - i) DOI number of the cited work (for journal articles).
- (3) The underlined bibliographic data is mandatory for each reference, the communication of other data is left to the author or depends on whether it is needed for the reference in question (e.g. volume number).
- (4) Glossary of terms (Glossary). The terminology used by the candidate - with short 2-3 line definitions - can be included at the end of the paper. Although it greatly increases the practicability of the paper, it is not compulsory.
- (5) A separate list of the author's publications on the topic must be included at the end of the doctoral dissertation, and in the case of an article-based dissertation, bibliographic data of the published texts.

Submission of the doctoral dissertation

8.§

- (1) The doctoral dissertation may be submitted between 1 September and 30 June each academic year, as specified in the UDR and in these Rules.

²³ If there is no publisher or periodical name, the paper should be referred to as a discussion paper or conference publication, or, if these designations are uncertain, as a manuscript.
