

CALL FOR PAPERS

PRMIA Research Conference Budapest

The Professional Risk Managers' International Association and Corvinus University of Budapest, Institute of Finance invite you to join the 9th Research Conference on Risk Management, where the local research institutes present their latest results in the framework of a one-day academic conference. The conference is planned to be held on-site, but there will also be the possibility to connect online.

As PRMIA's main goal is to promote, develop and share professional risk management practices, PRMIA Hungary (Hungarian Chapter of PRMIA) is engaged in bringing together the researchers of the leading universities with professionals of financial institutions and large corporations.

Registration for the conference is free.

The official language of the conference is English.

Please submit the title of your paper and an extended abstract (2-pages) to hungary@prmia.org.

Key dates:

Submission deadline: 30 September, 2024.

Acceptance notification: 5 October, 2024.

Date of the conference: 16 October, 2024.

Venue: Corvinus University of Budapest
