

Application for Regular grant based on social needs
for doctoral students
2024/2025
Semester 1.

Pursuant to Section 49 and Annex 1 of the Regulation on Student Fees and Benefits the Corvinus University of Budapest hereby issues a call for applications for regular grants based on social needs for the doctoral students of the University for the 1st semester of 2024/2025

1. The regular social grant is a financial benefit provided for students on the basis of their social situation.
2. Any student pursuing his/her studies in a full-time (daytime delivery) doctoral programme who has an active student status in the relevant semester may apply for the grant from the 1st semester of the first year.
3. A student with an active status who participates in more than one programme simultaneously may only apply for the grant with regard to one programme.
4. The regular social grant is a monthly financial benefit provided for one semester on the basis of the student's social situation through application.
5. The application and its annexes shall be submitted through the Neptun Unified Education Administration System (hereinafter referred to as Neptun), on the form called "P709-Regular grant based on social needs for doctoral students 2024/2025/1" under "Administration/Requests/Requests with free text fields". The announcement of the grant opportunity can be accessed on the University's website. The Dean of Corvinus Doctoral Schools (hereinafter: "Dean of CDS") shall reject an application without further examination if it is not submitted using the application form and/or the platform indicated in this paragraph.
6. The application period (including the supporting documents necessary to prove the circumstances specified in the application):
14.10.2024 10:00 am - 21.10.2024 12:00 noon
7. The time limit is of peremptory nature, and no application for justification is allowed. Applications submitted after the deadline shall be rejected by the Dean of CDS without further examination.
8. Correcting deficiencies is not allowed. No certificates, including corrections, replacement of certificates already submitted and submission of certificates not previously supplied, and/or additions to the application may be submitted after the deadline for submission set out in paragraph 6. Applications submitted in accordance with paragraph 5 shall be assessed by the Dean of CDS on the basis of the documents supplied.
9. For each of the circumstance referred to in the application, the certificate specified in Provisions No. 5/2024 of the Vice-Rector for Education on the certificates required to establish the social status of students and on the additional certificates to be submitted during the dormitory admission procedure is required, i.e. the Dean of CDS will only consider circumstances on the merits for which the applicant uploaded a certificate. When examining the merits of the application, any circumstance for which the student has failed to upload a certificate shall be disregarded by the Dean of CDS.

- a) The certificates to be attached to the application must be scanned in PDF format and none of them may exceed 500 kB in size.
 - b) All household income must be certified if the applicant also wishes to be awarded an income score, except for the net income from employment or scholarship of the applicant (if not self-supported) or of a dependent living in the same household who is a student and has active student status in a programme offered in daytime delivery mode. Regular income must be certified for the months of April, May and June 2024 (in the case of salaries, this usually constitutes the monthly salary transfer in May, June and July).
 - c) The list of the required certificates is specified in Provisions No. 5/2024 of the Vice-Rector for Education on the certificates required to establish the social status of students and on the additional certificates to be submitted during the dormitory admission procedure. The provisions are available on the University's website. The declarations submitted with the application must comply with the formal requirements set out in Annexes 3 to 9 to these Provisions.
 - d) The fixed amount of expenditure for food consumption for self-supporting students shall be HUF 51,334, determined on the basis of Point III./11.e) of Annex 1 to the Provisions No. 5/2024 of the Vice-Rector for Education.
 - e) If the student does not submit Annex 4 referred to in Point II/B 2.a) of Annex 1 (i.e. in the case of dependent applicants, the supporting person does not declare other income), and its submission is not mandatory under any regulation, provisions or the present call for applications, then it shall be deemed by the Dean of CDS that by submitting the application, the applicant declares under penalty of perjury that he/she has no other income.
 - f) Any communication regarding submitted applications (deadlines, supporting documents) shall be sent to the applicant via Neptun, and it is therefore the applicant's responsibility to regularly monitor the messages received throughout the application process. The applicant shall be responsible for any disadvantage resulting from failure to do so and shall bear the consequences thereof.
 - g) In order to ensure that applications and the necessary certificates and documents are fully submitted, the Doctoral Student Social Committee offers an opportunity for personal consultation, for replying to queries at the dszb@uni-corvinus.hu e-mail address.
10. The amount of the regular social grant shall be determined using the scoring system specified in the Annex to the call for applications.

11. The monthly amount of the grant per student may not be lower than 10% of the statutory minimum wage applicable for full-time employment (minimum wage), and may not be higher than 50% of the minimum wage.

Minimum amount that can be awarded: HUF 93,380/month

Maximum amount that can be awarded: HUF 133,400/month

12. Setting the amount of the grant:

- a) The applications shall be checked and ranked by the Doctoral Student Social Committee. The Doctoral Student Social Committee may involve additional staff in the administrative work related to the ranking process, while ensuring the confidentiality of the applications and respecting data protection laws and the Provisions of the Presidential Committee on the Rules of Data Management.
- b) Once the Doctoral Student Social Committee has established all the sub-scores for each applicant, it shall summarise and determine the student's overall score.
- c) Based on the number of applicants and the students' overall scores, the Doctoral Student Social Committee shall propose thresholds with the corresponding amount of the regular social grant.

13. The decision on awarding the grant shall be taken by the Dean of CDS. The resulting decision shall not constitute a discretionary decision.

14. During the period of disbursement, recipients of the grant shall be obliged to notify the University Doctoral Office of any change affecting disbursement as promptly as possible, but not later than within 8 days at the phd.office@uni-corvinus.hu email address.

15. Disbursement of the grant in the event of termination or suspension of student status: during the period of grant status, the grantee shall receive the grant for each month started in which she/he has active student status and has not yet requested suspension or has not been ordered to take a passive semester. If the student terminates his/her student status or requests suspension thereof, or is ordered by the University to take a passive semester:

- a) in the event of termination of student status, eligibility for the grant shall cease on the last day of the month of termination,
- b) in the case of suspension, eligibility for the grant shall cease retroactively, for the entire duration of the suspension period, on the last day of the month in which the suspension is notified or the passive semester is ordered. In this case, if payment has been made for any month of the semester affected by suspension, the student shall be obliged to repay the amount concerned.

16. The payment of student benefits shall be made exclusively via Neptun. The payment of benefits established in HUF shall be subject to holding a default bank account in the student's own name, denominated in HUF, the details of which the student shall provide through Neptun.

17. In the absence of payment, the University shall not be liable if the student has failed to report his/her bank account details and/or any change therein, or has failed to report them as required. All responsibility for failing to report a change in the bank account number, for providing an incorrect number or incorrectly setting the default account number shall be borne by the student. Should the student fail to record or correct in Neptun the data necessary for the payment despite a notice sent via Neptun and to his/her electronic mailing address, the University shall not be obliged to make further attempts at payment until the student certifies to the organisational unit recording the payment that the complete data were uploaded.
18. If the student fails to provide the data, information required for grant payment within forty-five (45) days from the date of the final decision on eligibility, the student shall lose his/her grant eligibility without further action in accordance with the RSFB. The relevant decision shall be taken by the Head of Neptun Student Finances at Student Services. The decision shall be communicated to the student via Neptun.
19. Should an erroneous bank transfer be made to the student for any reason or should the student be under a reimbursement obligation, the student shall be obliged to reimburse the relevant amount in full as soon as he/she becomes aware of it, but not later than within fifteen (15) days of receiving the relevant notice from the University.
20. More information on the application process can be requested from dszb@uni-corvinus.hu
21. Legal remedy requests must be submitted in Neptun, addressed to the Student Appeals Committee within 15 days of the decision being notified. It will not be possible to correct deficiencies during the appeals procedure.
